It is critical to include all 'Ready-to-drink' beverages into the State of California recycling program. The state should require that every beverage container sold in the State of California be required to pay a redemption payment to CalRecycle Beverage Container Fund. Currently numerous containers such as wine bottles, distilled spirits, fruit juice containers and many others are not included under California Redemption Value program. The increase in the volume of containers would greatly increase the beverage recycling fund to be used for the sustainability of local corps throughout the
